Dear Mr Kermode

We write further to your request which was received on 27 June 2023 and which states:

"Please can you confirm the following for the period 23rd March 2020 to 1st December 2022:

- 1. What is the total number of persons fined by the IOM Court for breach of any Coronavirus Regulations?*
- 2. What is the overall value of such fines?*
- 3. How many persons received a community service order by the Court for breach of any Coronavirus Regulations?*
- 4. How many persons received a probation order by the Court for breach of any Coronavirus Regulations?*
- 5. What is the overall value of costs awarded against defendants by the Court for breach of Coronavirus Regulations?*

Thank you."

While our aim is to provide information whenever possible, in this instance the public authority does not hold or cannot, after taking reasonable steps to do so, find the information that you have requested.

who may be able to help you.

Our current systems do not allow us to extract the data that you request. However, we are currently implementing a new system which we hope will greatly enhance the ability to extract and analyse statistical historical and current data.

Please quote the reference number 3207038 in any future communications.

Your right to request a review

If you are unhappy with this response to your freedom of information request, you may ask us to carry out an internal review of the response, by completing a complaint form and submitting it electronically or by delivery/post.

An electronic version of our complaint form can be found by going to our website at <https://services.gov.im/freedom-of-information/Review> . If you would like a paper version of our complaint form to be sent to you by post, please contact me and I will be happy to arrange for this. Your review request should explain why you are dissatisfied with this response, and should be made as soon as practicable. We will respond as soon as the review has been concluded.

If you are not satisfied with the result of the review, you then have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner for a decision on;

1. Whether we have responded to your request for information in accordance with Part 2 of the Freedom of Information Act 2015; or
2. Whether we are justified in refusing to give you the information requested.

In response to an application for review, the Information Commissioner may, at any time, attempt to resolve a matter by negotiation, conciliation, mediation or another form of alternative dispute resolution and will have regard to any outcome of this in making any subsequent decision.

More detailed information on your right to a review can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at www.inforights.im.

Should you have any queries concerning this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Further information about freedom of information requests can be found at www.gov.im/foi.

I will now close your request as of this date.

Yours sincerely
