31 October 2023

Dear Mr Kermode

We write further to your request, received 24 October 2023, which states:

"As at the date of the last Isle of Man census in 2021 please can you confirm the following:

- 1. What was the total number of residents aged 16 and over?
  - 2. What was the total number of residents registered on the Electoral Roll?
- Thank you"

Our response to your request is as follows:

As at the date of the last Isle of Man census in 2021 please can you confirm the following:

1. What was the total number of residents aged 16 and over?

While our aim is to provide information whenever possible, under section 20 of the Act, we are not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to you, whether free of charge or on payment of a fee. The information that you have requested is available online in the 2021 Isle of Man Census Report Part 1, page 22 at the following link: www.gov.im/media/1375604/2021-01-27-census-report-part-i-final-2.pdf.

2. What was the total number of residents registered on the Electoral Roll?

The total number of registered electors at the time of the Isle of Man 2021 Census was 64,181.

Please quote the reference number 3483605 in any future communications.

Your right to request a review

If you are unhappy with this response to your freedom of information request, you may ask us to carry out an internal review of the response, by completing a complaint form and submitting it electronically or by delivery/post.

An electronic version of our complaint form can be found by going to our website at <https://services.gov.im/freedom-of-information/Review> . If you would like a paper version of our complaint form to be sent to you by post, please contact me and I will be happy to arrange for this. Your review request should explain why you are dissatisfied with this response, and should be made as soon as practicable. We will respond as soon as the review has been concluded.

If you are not satisfied with the result of the review, you then have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner for a decision on;

1. Whether we have responded to your request for information in accordance with Part 2 of the Freedom of Information Act 2015; or
2. Whether we are justified in refusing to give you the information requested.

In response to an application for review, the Information Commissioner may, at any time, attempt to resolve a matter by negotiation, conciliation, mediation or another form of alternative dispute resolution and will have regard to any outcome of this in making any subsequent decision.

More detailed information on your right to a review can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at www.inforights.im.

Should you have any queries concerning this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Further information about freedom of information requests can be found at www.gov.im/foi.

I will now close your request as of this date.

Yours sincerely

Administrative Officer
